MEET THE WOMAN WHO LOVES AND INSPIRES TO LIVE A FREEDOM LIFESTYLE

MEET NICOLE

Q. How was life going before freedom lifestyle?

Life was good before my Freedom Lifestyle. It wasn't 'great' but it was good.

But I always felt something was missing, or I was doing something wrong because I never felt the path I was on was the right one.

I had felt like this for many many years.

It wasn't until I lost my mother in 2011 that I really started questioning my path and deciding to make changes to start living the life I truly deserved.

Q. What inspired and motivated you to choose freedom lifestyle?

I have been obsessed with travel since I was 10 years old.

We had several Japanese students stay with us in the mid 80's and I was so intrigued by their culture and customs and this is where my obsession for travel began.

My obsession for freedom has been with me for my entire adult life.

I never fit in with what is seen as the 'conventional' way to live – I have always known I never wanted to be a mother and the 'white picket fence' 9 – 5 life just didn't suit me at all.

I started my first business when I was 24 and have been an entrepreneur ever since.

I love knowing that my life is in my hands, and not someone else's.

To me being an entrepreneur is the epitome of freedom because I am in control of how much I earn, how much I work and what with my life.

Nicole has been traveling around the globe full time since 2012 along with her husband. She is an online entrepreneur and helps people achieve a lifestyle of their dreams. Her business has been featured in BUSINESS INSIDER, The Huffington post, The Business Journals and many more.

Q: How do you manage to work and travel?

My travel life comes before my work life always, but of course I do need to schedule in time to earn some money to pay for the travel! I now only work 2 hours a day on average but of course it wasn't always this way.

When I first started my online business I was working typical full time hours but as I have developed my business I have been able to whittle down my hours without sacrificing my income.

So now my work life doesn't interfere with my travel life at all.

Q4: What tips would you like to share with our readers who want to break 9-5 routine?

DO IT!! It might seem scary right now but trust me, if that is the lifestyle you want jumping in will be the best thing you ever do. Stop waiting for the 'right' time because that will never come. Just make a plan, set a date and do it.

I gave myself 11 months from the day I decided to change my life until the day my new life started. Setting that date was the best thing I did because it forced me to take the steps I needed to take to make the change.

I hear so many excuses from women who want to change their life but think they can't.

But it's just fear stopping them. So it's time to stop letting fear run your life and take life in your own hands and live the life you truly deserve!

Q. Do you believe in "Living this moment" or "Saving for future" or both?

Both, depending on what your beliefs are. There is no right or wrong way, only the way that feels most comfortable to you.

For me its living in the moment but that doesn't mean saving for the future is wrong.

It's about finding which path is right for you and living a fulfilling life without sacrificing your own beliefs. But again, make sure it's not just fear making the choice for you.

Make sure when you decide how to live your life you are coming for a place deep within your heart where there is no fear, no doubt, only pure bliss and exhilaration.
